Bout Pleased Large Crowd.
One Preliminary Staged.
Ed. Lewis, Kentucky's favorite wrestling son, proved to the large crowd gathered at the Broad Street arena last night that he was the master of Yousoff Hussane, the "Terrible Turk," at all stages of one of the fastest bouts ever staged in this city. The Southern lad won the first and third falls, while the Turk captured the second.

The German charge d'affaires, Von Haimhausen, who also saw Mr Bryan, said it was greatly to be regretted that dapan had raised an issue in the Far East, as Germany had been willing to neutralize that entire section. He expressed the view that this would have been the most humane course. But whatever the outcome might be as to kiauchau, he felt it would be a detached incident, which could have no effect on the general issue in Europe.
